

The West Bengal University of Health Sciences
M.Ch. (Paediatric Surgery) Examination, August-September 2021

Paper : II

Full Marks : 100
Time : 3 hours

Attempt all questions. All Questions carry 10marks each.

- 1) Classify vascular malformation. How would you manage a low flow venous malformation arising from inner side of cheek. 10
- 2) Classify pre pubertal testicular tumour. Management of a stage 2 yolk sac tumour in a 2 years old child. 10
- 3) Management of empyema thoracis. 10
- 4) Difference between gastroschisis and omphalocele and their management. 10
- 5) Role of onco fetal antigens in pediatric surgical practice. 10
- 6) Describe the common cystic lesions of chest found in paediatric age group. 10
- 7) Discuss various therapeutic options in management of pulmonary hypertension in a surgical neonate. 10
- 8) Diagnosis and management of meconium ileus. Enumerate the complications of cystic fibrosis. 10
- 9) What are the remnants of Meckels diverticulum. What are the complications of Meckels diverticulum. 10
- 10) Describe the use of CIC in various paediatric urological conditions. 10